

| Resource # | Agency Contact Information                                                                                                                                                                         | Job Description/Qualification/Comments                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1          | Aids Resource Center of WisconsinDeryl Carter1212 57 th StreetKenosha, WI 53140800-924-6601                                                                         | This organization is dedicated to public understanding and prevention of AIDS. A youth group called Hipsters, provides education about prevention, safe sex, and related topics.Must be at least 13 years old                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 2          | American Red CrossLauri Burft4521 Taylor Ave.Racine, WI 53405Miller@wi-redcross.org262-554-9997                                    | The Red Cross provides disaster relief services. Promotion of health and safety, and training in first aid. Volunteers are needed to fill the following positions: Manikin Maintenance 1: Clean manikins with bleach and water solution upon return from classes. Remove and replace manikin's shirts. Manikin Maintenance 2: Sanitize and individually package face pieces for manikin CPR lessons. Data Entry: Enter data into an Access Database. Support Services Volunteer: Provide support to office staff (labeling brochures, stuffing envelopes, making phone calls) answer phones and greet visitors. Vehicle Cleaner: clean, wax, and vacuum out vehicles. Cleaning products will be provided. Copy Assistant: copy ,staple, sort, stuff in house materials as directed. Safety Health Fair Assistant: Attend Health Fairs and distribute Red Cross information to public.Must be at least 17 years oldClerical, community, companionship, and first aid experience helpful |
| 3          | Amnesty International USAMidwest Regional OfficeAudrey Randall53 West Jackson: Ste.731Chicago, IL, 60604Jigsaw@aivsa.org313-427-2060 | Amnesty International monitors the observance of human rights around the world, advocates on behalf of those whose rights are abused, and publishes reports on human rights issues in various countries. Amnesty International has numerous local chapters which include student participation.Must be at least 15 years oldCommunity human service skills helpful                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 4          | Big Brothers/Big SistersTom Wiess2302 Dekoven Ave.Racine, WI 53403Bbbsrk@rootcom.net262-633-8434                                       | Matches adult mentors with younger boys and girls to provide companionship and support. Volunteers 16 and over chaperone youngsters without matches at events.Must be at least 16 years oldCompanionship skills a plus                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

|           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|-----------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 13 | Countryside Human SocietyMarilyn Benson2706 Chicory RoadRacine, WI 53403262-554-6699                                                                                                                                      | Volunteers are needed as trail walkers, dog washers, and to secure sponsors for annual fundraiser. Dog wash age 16+. All other duties 18+. Must be at least 16+ or 18+                                                                                                                                                       |
| 14 | Dekoven CenterMax DershemExecutive Director600 21st StreetRacine, WI 53403262-633-6401                                                                                                                    | The Dekoven Center uses volunteers to help with seasonal gardening, weeding, raking, opportunities for scout troops organizations. Must be at least 18 years oldClerical and outdoor skills helpful                                                                                                                     |
| 15 | Dr. Bryant Community CenterLesia-Hill DriverCity of Racine601 21st StreetRacine, WI 53403262-636-9236                                                                                                     | This center enhances the quality of life in the leisure time services, community support and programming, while addressing psychological, educational, and social needs. We provided numerous volunteer and job opportunities for youth. Must be at least 14 years old                                                       |
| 16 | Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.Community CenterJames Wilson1134 Martin Luther King DriveRacine, WI 53404262-636-9237Fax 262-636-9445                                                                                 | This center enhances the quality of life in the leisure time services, community support and programming, while addressing psychological, educational, and social needs. We provided numerous volunteer and job opportunities for youth. Must be at least 14 years old                                                       |
| 17 | Eco-Justice CenterS. Janet Weyker7133 Michna RoadRacine, WI 53402Jaweyk@miliserv.netwww.racinedominicans.org262-681-8527 | The Eco-Justice Center is seeking youth who like to work outdoors. Some task include: gardening, feeding and care or chickens, ducks, geese, rabbits, and alpacas; basic yard work and maintaining a walking path in the woods. Must be at least 10 years old (unless accompanied by a parents or other responsible person.) |

|           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 22 | Girls Inc. at the YWCA of Racine:She VolunteerMarie Black740 College Ave.Racine, WI. 53403262-989-2272Fax: 262-898-1425girlsincracine@yahoo.com | Strong, smart, and bold high school students needed to mentor elementary and middle school girls! Learn how to facilitate groups that teach science, literacy, leadership, or media skills. Earn volunteer credit while making a positive difference in the lives of Racine youth! At least one day per week for two hours after school. Must be in grade 9th -12th . Skills in leadership, science, literacy, or media and technology are helpful, but not required. |
| 23 | Goodwill Industries5420 21st StreetRacine, WI 53406800-236-2494262-554-3155                                                                                                                       | Volunteers are needed to assist developmentally disabled adults with living skills, recreation, outings, and art activities. Must be at least 18 years old                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 24 | Habitat for HumanityNora Grosse1501 Villa StreetRacine, WI 53403262-637-9176                                                                                                                                 | Volunteers 16+ are limited to sodding and yard work due to insurance liability. Volunteers 18+ help with building new homes and rehabilitating existing ones. Habitat for Humanity is an international voluntary organization. Must be at least 16-18 years old                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 25 | HALOSheila Hill2000 Dekoven Ave.Racine, WI 53403Shill@haloinc.org262-633-3235Fax 262-633-7374                                                               | Prepare a meal for our residents once a week, once a month, or once a year; whatever fits the needs of your group or organization. Monday-FridayBreakfast @ 7:30amLunch @ 11:30amDiner 5-6pm Must be at least 12 years old with supervision by your agency or organizationGood people skills helpful                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 26 | HALOSheila Hill2000 Dekoven Ave.Racine, WI 53403Shill@haloinc.org262-633-3235Fax 262-633-7374                                                               | Families or individuals to spend an hour reading or acting out stories to kids. Provide your own books or use ours. Monday-Friday @ 6:00pmSaturday-Sunday after 2:00pm Must be at least 16 years oldGood people skills helpful                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |

|           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-----------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 38 | Racine County Food Bank                 Dan Taivalkoski                 2000 DeKoven Avenue                 Racine, WI 53403 Info@racinecountyfoodbank.com                 262-632-2307                 Fax 262-632-2643 | Racine County Food Bank supports food pantries, shelters, soup kitchens, and social service organizations with food. It also cultivates community gardens. Volunteers make up food baskets, help with the gardens, move and sort products, and help with inventory. Any age possible                 Community skills helpful                                                                                                                     |
| 39 | Racine County 4-H                 Linda Leuder                 14200 Washington Ave                 Sturtevant, WI, 53177                 262-886-8460                                                                                                                                | Volunteers participate in service projects such as making crafts with and for nursing home residents, collection and distribution for food banks, collecting school supplies for Homeward Bound, garbage pick up at County Fairgrounds; yard care for the elderly and much more! The 4-H After school Program is available in urban areas. It needs older youth volunteers to assist with the programs and with teaching. Must be at least 9 years old |
| 40 | Racine County Republican Party                 Stephanie or Bill Folk                 4227 Kueffel                 Racine, WI 53402                 262-681-3552                 262-639-6835                                                                                    | Campaign Worker. Assist with various Republican campaigns in the spring and fall of 2008. Volunteers will be needed to make phone calls, put out yard signs, and work at various fundraising events. Shifts are 2-4 hours and peak needs are Aug.-Nov. 2008. Must be 10-15 years old with a parent and 16+ without a parent                 Individuals and groups are welcome                                                                    |
| 41 | Racine County UW-Extension                 4-H Youth Development Educator                 14200 Washington Ave                 Sturtevant, WI, 53177 www.racine.uwex.edu                 262-886-8460                                   | UW-Extension in Racine County needs youth volunteers on an individual project basis. Besides 4-H youth volunteers serving within the Racine County 4-H program, the UW Extension has several short-term projects, such as organizing mailings &amp; various clerical duties, working in community gardens, growing food to distribute to food pantries and other projects as needed. Must be at least 10 years old                                     |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 47 | Racine Public Library                 Jessica MacPhail                 75 7th Street                 Racine, WI 53403                 262-636-9170                                                                                                                                                       | Volunteers work with children, provide story-telling, explain computers, sort books, and assist with various activities. Volunteers “share their love of reading and of books with other young people.” all volunteers must make a time commitment to the library. Must be at least 16 years old                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 48 | Racine YMCA                 Nette Marks                 725 Lake Avenue                 Racine WI, 53403                 262-634-1994 ext 260                                                                                                                                                                       | The YMCA needs volunteers to assist teachers with games, field trips, swimming instruction, summer camps, nature study, and craft activities. Must be at least 14 years old                 Crafts and Outdoor activities skills helpful                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 49 | Racine Youth Sports, Inc.                 Dan Nicholson                 Haban Park                 P.O. Box 044601                 Racine, WI 53404 Director@racineyouthsports.com                 262-886-0797                 Fax 262-886-8970 | Racine Youth Sports offers a variety of activities, including: sorting and inventory of baseball and football equipment for distributing to coaches, park maintenance, general clean-up, picking up garbage, data entry, assistance with football, cutting grass, concession stand help, and help at baseball tournaments. For more information visit our website at www.racineyouthsports.com Must be at least 13 years old                 Clerical, Sports, and Recreation Skills helpful                                                                  |
| 50 | Racine Zoological Society                 Heather Egerer                 200 Goold Street                 Racine, WI 53402 Education@racinezoo.org                 262-636-9580                 Fax 262-636-9307                                             | To be a Racine Zoo volunteer, you must be dedicated and responsible. All volunteers go through a prescheduled training session. To be eligible, you need to be 12 years of age and have completed 6th grade. Some jobs include staffing the Discovery Center, assisting summer camp counselors, artifact cart interpretation, on campus programming, special events, an assisting annual care staff. Volunteers are needed 2 hours per week during the summer and less during other months. Must be at least 12-17 years old                 Education, craft, and recreations skills are helpful |
| 51 | Residential Care, inc.                 Roni Pasch                 1719 Washington Ave.                 Racine, WI 53403                 262-633-6348                                                                                                                                                                | This is a residential facility for developmentally disabled adults. Volunteer assist with independent living skills, activities, tutoring, arts, crafts, and recreation. Must be at least 16 years old                 Education, craft, and recreations skills helpful                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 62 | Southern Wisconsin Center for the Developmentally DisabledSue Matuszek21425 Spring StreetUnion Grove, WI, 53182262-878-2411                                                  | The center can assign activities according to the volunteer's skills and interest.Must be at least 18 years old                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 63 | St. Monica's Senior Citizen HomeBarbara Schoeffel3920 N. Green Bay Rd.Racine, WI, 53404262-639-5050Fax 262-639-5673                                                      | Needed: compassionate youths who feel comfortable reading to residents who are visually and hearing impaired.Must be at least 15 years oldCommunity, Companionship, and Human Services skills helpful                                                                                                                                            |
| 64 | St. Vincent DePaul SocietyPat Miller135 West Chestnut StreetBurlington, WI, 53105763-8057                                                                                    | St. Vincent DePaul needs volunteer help in its food pantry and store, organizing donated clothing and other items, as well as with cleaning and maintenance.Must be at least 16 years oldCommunity Skills helpful                                                                                                                                |
| 65 | Tech Corps WisconsinMicheal Pitsch2051 Lathrop AveRacine, WI, 53405262-619-0931                                                                                              | Youth volunteers refurbish computers, train others, and provide technical support. Visit our website at www.cew.orgMust be at least 13Computer and Technology skills helpful                                                                                                                                    |
| 66 | Thrivent Financial for LutheransJoyce Glaess5801 Washington AvenueRacine WI, 53406262-884-8890                                                                               | Thrivent Financial for Lutherans, an insurance and financial services company, identifies youth development as its primary social goal. Youth are encouraged to conduct projects that help the disadvantaged or those at risk in the community.Must be at least 14 or in the 9 th gradeCommunity and Youth development skills helpful |
| 67 | Tyler-Domer Community CenterSue Henry2301 12 th StreetRacine, WI, 53403262-636-9414Sue.Henry@cityofracine.org | The Center provides numerous volunteer and job opportunities for youth to enhance the quality of life in the Racine community for all citizens.Must be at least 14 years oldCommunity skills helpful                                                                                                                                             |

